Max Unveils First Spanish Original, 'When No One Sees Us,' Starring 'The Flash's' Maribel Verdú, 'Mission Impossible's' Mariela Garriga

By John Hopewell ~

The New York Times

'When No One Sees Us' Is a Rich and Gorgeous Spanish Crime Drama

Even the small characters in this complex and sometimes humorous mystery on Max are rendered with the utmost specificity and affection.

The Spanish series "When No One Sees Us," beginning Friday on Max, is one of the better foreign-crime dramas in ages — focused, beautiful, sturdy but artful. The show is set in a small town in Spain where there is a U.S. Air Force base, and the story unfolds during Holy Week, which adds to the sense of import and impending crisis.

MUORI DI LEI: UN THRILLER PSICOLOGICO CHE LASCIA IL SEGNO

Il film segue Luca (Riccardo Scamarcio), insegnante di filosofia al liceo, la cui esistenza, già segnata da frustrazioni personali e professionali, viene sconvolta dall'arrivo della nuova vicina, Amanda (Mariela Garriga).

– Amanda. È il personaggio più enigmatico del film. All'inizio sembra solo una donna affascinante, libera e seducente, ma presto si rivela molto più complessa e ambigua. È vittima o carnefice? È sincera o sta manipolando Luca? Garriga interpreta magistralmente questa dualità, rendendo Amanda una presenza magnetica e inquietante.
